_____

The Houston Electrical League (HEL) reserves the right to reject or remove any entrant, in its sole discretion, that it believes is endangering other participants and/or creating an unsafe environment. The HEL reserves the right to reschedule the fishing tournament due to Mother Nature or any other natural disaster. The HEL will attempt to reschedule the fishing tournament to a mutually agreeable date. Any entrant who is unable to attend this event or a rescheduled event will not be refunded their entry fee for any reason.

By signing this form, I agree to hold harmless The Houston Electrical League and The Houston Electrical League Scholarship Foundation, its officers, directors and employees from all claims arising out of or related to this tournament. In no event and under no circumstances shall The Houston Electrical League / The Houston Electrical League Scholarship Foundation or any of its officers, directors or employees be liable to me or any third party for any damages (including special, incidental, punitive or consequential damages) arising out of my participation in this tournament.

Further, I understand that operating motor vehicles and water craft while intoxicated is illegal and I will not participate in alcohol consumption past the legal limit.
